Preferred Payment of Account of a New York Concern Is Alleged.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the Lindell Dry Goods Co., owner of the Lindell store at Eighth street and Washington avenue, was filed in the Federal Court this afternoon by creditors whose claims aggregate $23,494.27.

The petitioners and their claims are J. Lomberger Davis, $22,911.67, alleged to be due on a promissory note; the J. Kennard & Sons Carpet Co., $482.69 for merchandise, and the King-Brinsmade Mercantile Co., $10 for merchandise.

It is alleged in the petition that the Lindell Co., while insolvent, paid $325.40 to Arnold, Schiff & Co. of New York, Feb. 23, thereby making the company a preferred creditor.

J. Lomberger Davis is a son of John D. Davis, one of the founders and first president of the Lindell Dry Goods Co., who died May 5 last. In April, 1916, three department managers of the Grand-Leader store acquired a controlling interest in the Lindell Store from John D. Davis. The price was said to be in excess of $100,000, payment being made partly in cash and partly in notes.

John D. Davis in his will left the bulk of his estate to J. Lomberger Davis, who resigned a few months ago as president of the Chamber of Commerce to become an assistant to the custodian of enemy alien property.

Military Aviators to Fly Over Ocean
Going Vehicles See Leaves

A PACIFIC PORT, March 14 (By A. P.)—Launching ceremonies of the steamship Faith, the first reinforced concrete ocean-going vessel built in the United States, attracted thousands of guests and spectators here today.

The vessel is 320 feet long, 44 feet wide and 30 feet deep, and will carry 5000 tons of cargo.

The launching was scheduled for the afternoon.

Mrs. W. Leslie Comyn, wife of the president of the constructing corporation, will act as sponsor for the vessel which is to be christened "Faith." She will break a bottle of California champagne over the vessel. Military aviators will fly over the boat as she leaves the ways.

Former Minister Expected to WASHINGTON, March 14 (By A. P.)—Further indications that Leon Trotzky, former Russian Foreign Minister, will oppose ratification by the Soviet Congress of Germany's peace terms, and that he will advocate reorganization and use of the army in defending Russia, were contained in a dispatch to the State Department today from Ambassador Francis at Vologda.

The Ambassador reported a conversation that Trotzky had with someone as late as March 11, in which he said he considered war unavoidable and advocated an "iron discipline" for the army. The Ambassador added that this might or might not be significant.

The former Foreign Minister expressed great interest in the report that Serbia was about to be invaded by Japan either in conjunction with the armies of other Powers or alone, and appeared somewhat sensitive regarding it.

RECORD OF NATURALIZATION OF ADOLPHUS BUSCH SOUGHT

Quest in Connection With Negotiations for Release of Income;
Father Citizen in 1818.

Two Deputy Circuit Court Clerks have been examining the court records for several days in search of some record of the naturalization of Adolphus Busch, the brewer, who died in 1913, and whose widow, Mrs. Lily Busch, is soon to return to the United States from Germany.

Search is being made at the request of the law firm of Nagel & Kirby, who represent the Busch estate in the negotiations before the Custodian of Alien Enemy Property for the release of Mrs. Busch's income, now held because of her five-year residence in Germany.

It is said that the question of the naturalization of Adolphus Busch has nothing to do with Mrs. Busch's status, inasmuch as her father, Eberhard Anheuser, was naturalized in 1848.

The raid was attempted on a scale of magnitude hitherto unapproached, nine squadrons participating in the attack. Some of the machines followed the rivers Cise and Ourcq, while others came along the Creil-Paris and Soissons-Paris railroads. The percentage of the units that succeeded in reaching Paris was small. The aerial defense has improved greatly since the time of former raids and many of the German machines were forced back and obliged to drop their cargoes of bombs in vacant fields in the suburbs.

The American Red Cross was again prominent in giving help to the wounded.

While the raid upon Paris was in progress, French machines executed a counter offensive upon the enemy's airfields from which the German raiders had started. More than three tons of bombs were dropped on the Godha's landing fields, and the explosions seem to be that many of them made disastrous landings upon their return.

Two policemen were killed and three injured in the raid. One of the wounded policemen received the military medal.

More than 500 of the 750 employees of the Monsanto Chemical Works, 1700 South Second street, failed to appear for work this morning, and John F. Queeny, president of the company, said the plant was practically closed. He said he would not have admitted the majority of the employees, if they had come, unless they had agreed to his offer of an increase in pay, which they rejected at a meeting last night.

The plant manufactures chemical and medicinal products, some of which are used by the United States Army and Navy and the Red Cross. Two of the chief products are phenacetin to allay fever, and chlorhydrate for sedative use.

Queeny last night declared that employees had told him that an offer of a check for $10,000 and of additional backing to the amount of $100,000, had been made to them if they should strike. They related, he said, that this offer came through the Electrical Workers' Union of St. Louis and was made on behalf of the American Federation of Labor. Queeny said today that he had an appointment to talk over this incident with a representative of the War Department, and that pending this conference he would not make further details public.

O. E. Jennings of Springfield, Ill., organizer of the International Electrical Workers' Union, who is here in connection with the Wagner Electric strike, said today that the strike-busters funds, maintained by unions affiliated with the Federation of Labor, were probably mostly mentioned in connection with the attempt to organize the Monsanto employees. He said any suggestion that an improper offer of funds was made to the Monsanto men would be absurd.

INCREASE OFFER REJECTED.

Queeny said he invited his employees to work on their normal last night in one of the buildings of the chemical plant, instead of hiring an outside hall. The offer of the building was accepted, but Queeny's offer of an increase of pay, as large as he should decide, after inquiry, the business would bear, was rejected. He then decided, he said, to close the plant to these employees.

"It isn't a strike," he said. "I didn't give them a chance to strike."

Queeny said that, several weeks ago, he instructed the superintendent of the plant to take up the wage question and see what increases could be made. Last night, he said, he called the employees together and told them he was working on a new wage schedule, with time and one-half for Sunday work. He also talked of the difficulties he had experienced in building up and expanding the plant, and of the financial demands that had been made on the concern.

He met the men again Tuesday, and he says their first demand was for recognition of the union.

"They wanted to give me 24 hours to consider this matter," he said, "but I told them it wouldn't take me 24 hours, and that if the union was the issue, they might as well have 24 hours to work to invade the German lines with an organized party."

"When we couldn't find a German to bring back, we looked for some hamburger cheese, but there was no extra food lying around," said a third soldier.

Infantry officers declare that the American barrage, laid without the assistance of the allied batteries, was perfect, the raiders following the fleeing Germans in the haze of the breaking dawn until the enemy plunged wildly into our barrage.

This swept the front-line trenches for four minutes and then moved automatically in the shape of a crescent, cutting off reinforcements attempting to enter the raid sector.

The Germans had named their front trench "New World Street," as was shown on a neatly lettered sign which a soldier brought back as a memento.

The raiders recrossed 375 yards beyond this. The intelligence section is deciphering the captured papers.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY
IN FRANCE, March 14.—"I didn't find even a dachshund to bring home," said a mud-bogged soldier, who was swinging his legs over the side of a truck which was being driven by some members of the first American raiding party back to their billets.

Revised reports of Monday's successful raid in the American sector near Mont Sec show that the German losses in the area were 15 killed from the artillery barrage and the close fighting in the trenches. All the dugouts were blown up after they had been searched for important papers. The American secured an abundance of souvenirs and the trucks carrying the returning raiders resembled secondhand stores.

German battle helmets, hats, belts, rifles, kitchen utensils and magazines were carried by the grinning American can soldiers.

"I am ready to go into the German trenches at any time," said one of them. The official report on the affair comments upon the great stimulus the event had upon the morale of the men, showed them how easy it was to invade the German lines with an organized party.

"CARMEN HERE GET 3 CENTS LESS THAN IN 11 OTHER CITIES"

C. E. Smith Gives Comparison of Hourly Wages at Hearing on U. R. Fare Raise Proposal.

OPPOSES BIG INCREASE

Engineer Says Operatives Get as Much as Firemen, Policemen and Bricklayers.

C. E. Smith, consulting engineer of the city's Public Utilities Department, testifying today as a witness for the city before the Missouri Public Service Commission, at the Statler Hotel, in the United Railways fare increase hearing, said the salaries of conductors and motormen in St. Louis is about 3 cents below the average maintained in 11 other large cities and that the commission ought to protect the city against an excessive increase in wages.

Smith said the present or 8-cent fare, he said, the company could afford to pay the conductors and motormen $2.00 a month.

Smith testified that about a year ago he was one of the arbitrators in a street railway strike in East St. Louis and at that time made a study of street car wages throughout the United States. He found that the average wage paid to conductors and motormen in St. Louis was 29 cents an hour, as compared with an average of 32 cents an hour in other cities.

Comparison of Wages.

It was difficult, he said, to compare street car operatives wages with those paid in other lines of industry, but he had compared that St. Louis Carmen earn as much as firemen and policemen and more than union bricklayers. The bricklayer, he said, works only seven months a year and spends the other five months looking for work. When idle he has to pay carfare and board. Through the bricklayer works only eight hours a day, he said. It takes him longer to go to and from his work, while car men usually live near the sheds and spend no carfare.

On the basis of the demanded increase of 35 per cent, he said, the conductors and motormen would receive $110 to $135 a month, which would be considerably more than is paid to policemen and firemen.

Smith questioned President McCulloch's statement that it would require $2,100,000 a year to increase the wages of trainmen. This was based on an increase of 10 cents an hour and an eight-hour day. In his opinion, he said, an adequate increase in wages could be made at an annual expenditure of $600,000.

A Answers McCulloch's Statements.

As to increased operating expenses, Smith said that in his opinion necessary expenses would cost the company $250,000 a month in 1918, than in 1917. As to McCulloch's assertion that the company this year would pay an increase of $972,000 in taxes, Smith said this was not well founded, as the rate will be reduced if the 100 per cent valuation system becomes effective.

He pointed out that the Board of Public Service yesterday recommended that the mill tax and franchise tax be reduced from $450,000 a year to $30,000, and said that even if the State and Federal taxes this year should be increased $100,000 the reduction of the city taxes would result in a saving to the company of $50,000 in total taxation.

Smith said his experience with a railroad operation convinced him that McCulloch was wrong when he said maintenance and operating expenses would not be reduced if business fell off. Lower revenues would force economy.

Says Company Makes Profit.

He said he had begun an investigation of the company's financial condition in November, 1916, when the compromise proposal on the mill tax was made, and had continued it since then and had found that from 1910 to 1917, both inclusive, the earnings of United Railways had been $4,294,773, a year, over and above all expenses.

In 1910 the payment of the 5 per cent dividend on the preferred stock was passed because of the mill tax decision and because the city was attacking the validity of the Jefferson Avenue line franchise. Since then,

Simonds Tells How Russian Collapse Opens India's Back Door to Germany

Road Now Clear to Herat Over Black Sea and Persia

And Herat, in Afghanistan, has long been considered the key to the Khyber Pass and to India—Anglo-Russian Agreement of 1907 removed England's worries, but now they are revived with greater forebodings than ever.

By Frank H. Simonds, Author of "The Great War" and "They Shall Not Pass."

Tardily and under Berlin urgings the world is beginning to recognize the real meaning of the latest news from Russia that which cuts off the oil districts of Batum and surrenders the surviving fraction of the Armenian race to Turkish massacre. By this new arrangement, Germany has acquired a road to the Indian frontier, independent of the Bagdad Railroad and on the flank of the British forces in Mesopotamia.

A generation ago, when Anglo-German rivalry in Asia seemed the one menace to world peace, when Kipling was writing of "the bear that walks like a man," Russia—Germany would push a railroad line straight down the frontiers of Afghanistan and the possible attack of the Czar to invade India through Khyber Pass, filled the foreign dispatches of that period. Britain at Kandahar watched with ever growing anxiety the approach of Russia to Herat. The Japanese War changed all this, and the arrangements between Britain and Russia in 1907, which divided Persia and liquidated Anglo-Russian contests, closed a long chapter of international rivalry.

Russian Railroad Opening Wedge

But the railroads which Russia had constructed remained. One of them, leaving the Black Sea at the oil port of Batum, passes over the Trans-Caucasian road to Central Asia, terminating at the port of Baku. East of the Caspian another railroad ran straight east along the Persian frontier until it reached Merv and from Merv it sent a branch down toward Herat, the branch which figured in all the alarming gossip of 25 years ago, when Russia and Britain were expected to fight for India in the wilds of Afghanistan.

On the basis of the demanded increase of 35 per cent, he said, the conductors and motormen would receive $110 to $135 a month, which would be considerably more than is paid to policemen and firemen.

BY its enforced treaties of peace Germany has gained command of the Black Sea on the west at the Danube's delta, and on the east at Batum. No opposition through Persia is feared, and Afghanistan is practically open. The way through Afghanistan lies straight to Herat, the "key to India."

north of both cities. Temporarily the German advance along the Bagdad and railroad to the Persian Gulf and along the Syrian and Hedjaz Railways, they are beyond the reach of allied armies operating either from Egypt or India. Just as long as the Black Sea is dominated by the Germans and Turkey remains a German ally, there is nothing of a military character to interfere with the transportation of German troops.

The preliminary peace treaty signed by Rumants and the Central Powers on March 3, contained a provision ordering Rumants to support with all its strength the transport of troops of the Central Powers through Moldavia and Bessarabia to Odessa. The purpose of the Central Powers in inserting this clause has not been made clear, although the explanation was given that the primary object was to secure importation of supplies from the Ukraine. After the treaty was signed, the semi-official German news agency announced that Germany had acquired a direct route by way of Russia to Persia and Afghanistan.

Of the German machines destroyed all but two were sent crashing back of the German lines. The amount of photography work that has been done is amazing and a large number of the pictures were taken at close quarters.

Bombing raids by British aviators have been almost continuous. One of the most successful expeditions was that against three enemy airfields on March 9.

Plan to Arouse Mohammedans.

But more than all else Germany hopes to rouse the millions of Mohammedans in this region and to spread an unrest and rebellion which will precede her armies on the march to India. The seizure of the oil wells of Batum is an important economic step, but the political design surpasses the economic. Germany is opening a road to India beyond the reach of British armies.

She is making sure her communications by creating Rumants and the Central Powers, and sending the Ukraine to Persia by special treaties. She has broken Russia and seized Russia's eastern roads.

She has acquired those Russian ambitions of a quarter of a century ago, and means to use the machinery and dislodged enemy troops with bombs and machine gunfire."

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Tuesday, March 12 (By A. P.)—This has been another day of ideal fighting weather, but there has been no change in the situation.

"The artillery pounds away in thunderous duels at various points and allied airmen are busy bombing, photographing and acting as eyes for the reserve armies."

The British airmen have been doing excellent work recently. The first ten days of March as a whole have been among the best yet recorded, for the service. During that period, in addition to a vast amount of reconnoitering and photographing, the intrepid Britishers destroyed 39 German airplanes and brought down 40 others out of control. Against this great total of 15 British machines are reported missing."

Odessa, the most important seaport of Southern Russia and the fourth city of Russia in population, was founded by Catherine II in 1794. Its population numbers about 450,000 nearly one-third of whom are Jews. Normally there were several thousand German residents. Among many other important institutions it contains the Imperial New Russian University, founded in 1865.

Odessa is the largest shipping point of Russia. Vast quantities of grain produced in southern Russia pass through it. Its situation near the great waterways of the Dnieper and the Dniester makes it the natural outlet for the exports of the southern provinces.

The preliminary peace treaty signed by Rumants and the Central Powers on March 3, contained a provision ordering Rumants to support with all its strength the transport of troops of the Central Powers through Moldavia and Bessarabia to Odessa. The purpose of the Central Powers in inserting this clause has not been made clear, although the explanation was given that the primary object was to secure importation of supplies from the Ukraine. After the treaty was signed, the semi-official German news agency announced that Germany had acquired a direct route by way of Russia to Persia and Afghanistan.

Of the German machines destroyed all but two were sent crashing back of the German lines.

Chaffeur for J. T. Weisman.
The detectives accompanied him there, but the express company knew nothing about the boxes. The detectives questioned the negro some more and learned that he was the chaffeur for Joseph T. Weisman, proprietor of the Alamac Hotel, Fourteenth and Chestnut streets, brother of Sam Weisman, and that the truck belonged to Joseph Weisman.

The vacant storeroom was visited again and other boxes of shoes found in a rear room, totaling 418 pairs.
The negro and the shoes were taken to the Lacadie Avenue Station, where the shoes were identified as having been stolen from the McElroy-Sloan Shoe Co., 1517 Washington avenue;
the Roberts-Johnson-Rand Shoe Co., Sixteenth street and Washington avenue, and the Dittman Shoe Co., 1107 Washington avenue.

Sam Weisman was arrested and Louis Seidel promptly appeared with a $1,500 bond which had been accepted by Judge Kruger of the Court of Criminal Selection. The police refused it until they communicated with United States District Attorney Oliver, because it was thought that the goods might have been stolen from interstate shipments, which would make it a Federal case. Oliver had no information and the bond was waived.

Shoes Consigned to Texas.

The stolen shoes were consigned to Texas, but the companies have not determined whether they were stolen from the shipping platforms at the stores or en route.

Agents of the Weisman property at 2830 Locust street say that the key had been out of their possession only once when a prospective renter took it. The police questioned this man, who said there were cases of shoes in the place when he looked at it, March 6. On March 7, the Reynolds women rented the upstairs.
After detectives had watched the place she was ordered to move. She refused to move. A warrant was then obtained against her.

and Olive streets when the police discovered Weisman and his brother Michael, opening bundles of goods at the shop at about midnight on Sept.
16, 1916. The reason given by Circuit Attorney McDaniel for dismissing the case was that he did not think he could convict Weisman. The tailors who were the prosecuting witnesses claimed they could identify the goods by price marks in their

STOLEN SHOES IN VACANT BUILDING OF SAM WEISMAN

Bondsman Is Arrested on Suspicion of Receiving Property.

VALUED AT $1254

Brother's Chauffeur Was Removing Shoes When Police Detained and Questioned Him.

Sam Weisman of 927 Catalpa street, taller, professional bondman and Democratic politician, was arrested last night on suspicion of receiving stolen property after 418 pairs of stolen shoes, valued at $1254, were found in a vacant store owned by him at 2830 Locust street.
An indictment against Weisman, charging him with receiving stolen cloth was dismissed by Circuit Attorney McDaniel on Feb. 18.

Detectives were watching the apartments above the vacant store, occupied by Dixie Reynolds, against whom a warrant is pending charging her with conducting a disreputable house within 300 feet of a church.

When a negro drove up in an automobile truck and carried two boxes of shoes from the vacant store. They questioned him and he said a man named Brown had given him an order to haul the boxes to the A. C.
Express Co., 310 North Twenty-

20,000,000 GALLONS OF WATER WASTED DAILY

Commissioner Wall, Urging Restrictions, Says Cost to City Is $800 a Day.

Water Commissioner Wall, in an address last night before the Engineers' Club, 2817 Olive street, urged the adoption of radical restriction regarding the use of water in St. Louis, and the installation of meters throughout the city as a means of preventing water waste, which, he said, cost the city approximately $292,000 in 1917.

Figures prepared by the Water Department and cited by Commissioner Wall disclosed that 20,000,000 gallons of water were daily pumped during 1917 into the mains and deliberately wasted without having served any useful purpose. This water, he said, cost, not less than $40 per million gallons, or a total of $800 a day, enough to buy 1000 cars.

Tests show that an allowance of 107 gallons of water per capita daily would be ample to meet the domestic, public and commercial needs of St. Louis. In 1917, however, the actual daily per capita consumption amounted to 133 gallons, or a wasteful waste of 25 gallons per capita daily.

Restrictive Measures Urged.

A number of restrictive measures designed to prevent much of this waste, which Commissioner Wall says should be immediately introduced and enforced by the city, were outlined by him as follows:

1. Prohibit lawn sprinkling and sidewalk washing except between certain hours in the morning and evening.

2. Forbid the use of automatic devices for sprinkling lawns or gardens except where premises are metered.

3. Prohibit the use of water motor washing machines and water motors in general.

4. Enforce strict regulations for the conservation of free water used by and under the orders of city departments other than the Water Department.

In urging his plan for the installation of water meters throughout St. Louis, Wall pointed to the results achieved through their adoption elsewhere, especially in New Orleans, where the per capita consumption amounts to 66 gallons daily. Other cities where meters are used extensively and where the consumption is less than in St. Louis are Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Boston, New York and Kansas City.

100,000 Meters Required.

Approximately 100,000 meters, averaging $17.50 each in cost, would be required to meter 90 per cent of the service in St. Louis, he said. These meters, installed at the rate of 20,000 a year for the next five years, would entail an expenditure of $1,750,000.

With these meters the average daily consumption in 1921 would be 92,000,000 gallons instead of 116,000,000 gallons, as estimated to be the probable consumption if the present system of charging flat rates for water is continued. In addition, Commissioner Wall declared, the present Water Works would be enabled to supply the city at its normal rate until after 1936 and possibly 1940. In no other way, he asserted, can the time when new waterworks must be provided be set forward 10 or 12 years.

In conclusion, the commissioner said the meters not only would make possible a schedule of rates fair to both city and consumer, which is impossible under the present system of flat, special and meter rates, but they would save the city 7,000,000,000 gallons of water annually, at a cost of $40 per million gallons after 1924.

SUSPECTED OF TRAIN SHOOTING

Man Taken From Train at Mexico, Mo., and Held.

A dispatch from Mexico, Mo., to the Post-Dispatch this morning said that a man was taken from a westbound Chicago & Alton train there and is held on suspicion of being Hick Harris of Roodhouse, Ill., who yesterday shot and killed Max Sawyer of Roodhouse and wounded Mrs. Geneva Clark on a local train near Whitehall, Ill., 69 miles northeast of St. Louis. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting. Sawyer was a brakeman, Harris a barber and Mrs. Clark was a waitress in a hotel at Roodhouse.

Mrs. Clark, who is in a critical condition, was placed in a hospital in Jacksonville, Ill., today. A posse in automobiles has been hunting for Harris in Greene County.

The man arrested at Mexico said he was Tom Carter of Springfield, Ill., and denied any knowledge of the Whitehall killing.

5000 Garments for Refugees.

Five thousand garments and $1,254 were sent to Belgian and French refugees by the St. Louis Baptist Women's Missionary Benevolent Union in the last year. It was announced at a meeting of the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, yesterday. Preparations are being made to send the soldiers 6000 pairs of slippers, made of old felt piano covers or similar material.

Five More Autos Stolen.

Five automobiles were reported stolen yesterday. They belonged to Joseph Feeder, 1223 Bladensburg avenue; Charles A. Hume, 1611 Locust avenue; Edward H. Engler, 5522 Waterman avenue; Standard Corrugated Box Co., 1447 North Twenty-first street, and E. W. McKittrick, 37 Vandeventer place.

MRS. J. F. ROBISON TO WED B. F. BABBITT

Engagement of Daughter of Mrs. Corwin H. Spencer is Announced.

An interesting engagement just disclosed is that of Mrs. John F. Robison and Byron F. Babbitt, which was formally announced yesterday.

Mrs. Robison is the widow of the late John F. Robison, a prominent business man of St. Louis, whose death occurred about three years ago. Before her marriage she was Miss Lulu Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Corwin H. Spencer of 4615 Berlin avenue, with whom she has made her home. Mr. Babbitt was appointed United States Commissioner three times. He resides at 4117 McPherson avenue.

No date for the wedding has been decided upon.

Your Son, Madam, Has Individuality!

Help him assert it. Don't conceal his "class" with garments that merely cover him. You owe it to him and to yourself to give your boy individuality in dress.

Our Clothes for Boys are distinctively styled and fashioned with the deftness of seasoned tailormen into boys' apparel of real individuality.

Smartly "right" in cut, supremely handsome as to design and superbly sturdy as to material—these excellent garments bespeak the quality and value that have placed our Boys' Clothes in a class apart with discriminating parents and their boys.

Come and see our bright, brisk-styled Boys' Spring Clothes. They are new, handsome and right, and there's plenty of them. Exclusive Agency for Sampeck clothes for boys.

QUALITY CORNER
ON LOCUST STREET AT SIXTH

An interesting war relief entertainment of a social nature which took place today was the luncheon given at the Mercantile Club by the Woman's Central Committee on Food Conservation, with Mme. Schumann-Heink as the guest of honor. Upon being invited to the luncheon by telegraph, the noted singer volunteered to come to St. Louis a day earlier than she originally intended to arrive for her relief tomorrow evening, so that she could contribute her part to the food conservation work in St. Louis by a program of patriotic songs.

Mrs. William J. Lemp was hostess to Mme. Schumann-Heink at the luncheon today, and among other prominent women who acted as hostesses were Mme. Jackson Johnson, B. F. Bush, Philip Bond Pouke, A. A. Busch, Geo. D. Markham, Theo. Benoist, Ellis Fischel, Walter Fischel, George Warren Brown, Sam Davis, George M. Brown, J. T. Davis Jr., Philip N. Moore, S. W. Fordyce, T. K. Niedringhaus, H. H. Langenberg, Peyton T. Carr, Warren Goddard, William Bagnell, J. L. Mauran, C. C. Collins, Benjamin Gratz, Festus J. Wade, Charles Rice, E. D. Nims, Clarence H. Howard, John Holliday, John Douglas, Calvin R. Lightner, J. L. Bergeron Davis, George Niedringhaus, I. W. Morton, Alfred Shapleigh, Charles Parsons Pettus, Howard Benoist, Walker Hill, Charles Sculley.

Miss Lucile Woods of 5291 Lindell boulevard, who with her grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Kupferle of 6127 Lindell boulevard, went to California several weeks ago, are now at Coronado Beach. They expect to return home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent L. Price of 5227 Washington boulevard are expecting their son, Mortimer Price, to arrive within the next few days from the Pawling School at Pawling, N. Y., to spend the Easter holidays. Allen Grover, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton Grover of 5061 Lindell boulevard, and Chapin Newhard, who are also students at the school, are expected to be home at the same time.

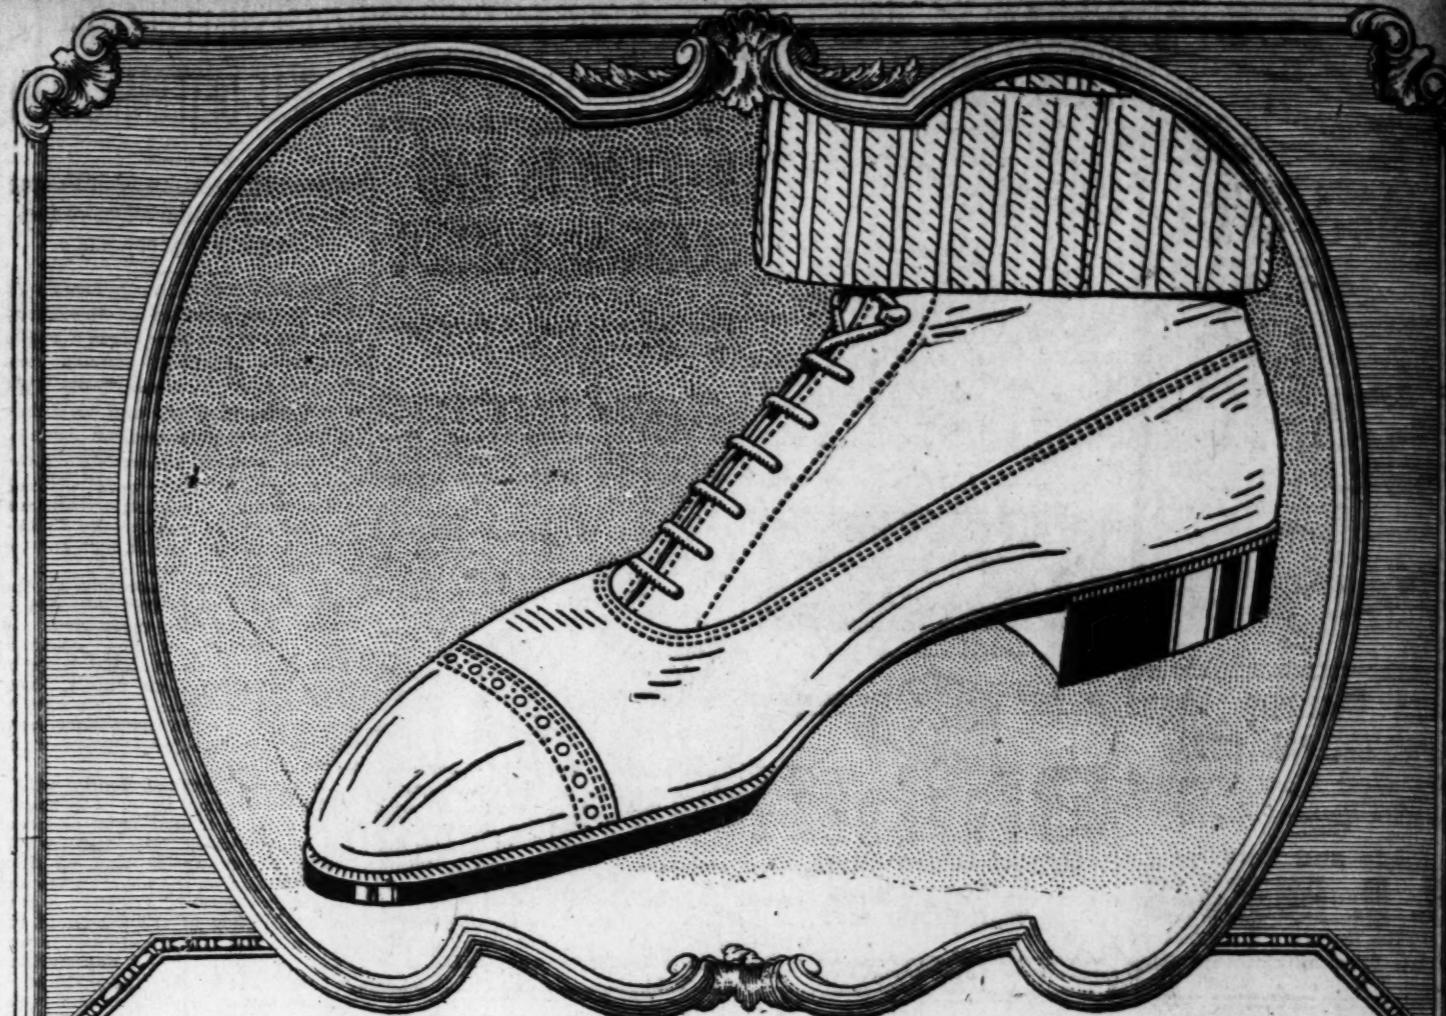

Mrs. W. H. Cheney of 5844 Von Versen avenue, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Irwin L. Cheney, and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Nolan, entertained with a luncheon followed by a 500 party at Hotel Statler today.

Five guests were invited to meet Mrs. Plitt.

Mrs. Mary B. Vogelsang of 24 Kingsbury place, who has been spending the winter with her parents in Pasadena, is now at Coronado Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard P. Silver of 411 North Newstead avenue are in New York City.

A formal ball will be given by St. Louis Lodge No. 9, B. P. O. Elks, York and Washington, D. C.

Why You Are Entitled to More Than a "Guarantee"

If we could only be sure what a dealer means when he "guarantees" a product it would save us valuable time and much energy that could be diverted to constructive purposes these trying days.

The word "guarantee" has come to mean little more than the right to complain about your purchase—or a "fighting chance" to get money back.

The Regal Shoe Company believes there is something better and more to the point than this in a business dealing.

They know there is only one way to make a shoe deliver the right kind of service from the very start-off. Leathers must be carefully selected of soft, special tannage—tough and glovey. Skilled workmanship must show in every line and stitch. The shoe must have style and authority.

They check these facts by their experiences through twenty-six years with hundreds of thousands of Regal wearers. Every shoe bears the Regal name as a sign of their direct responsibility and the mark of the great Regal institution.

You will find fifty-four Regal Stores in the Metropolitan centers and more than a thousand dealers in other towns and cities.

The shoe illustrated here is the "Manager." It can be had in tan or black, high or low—all the year round and every year. It's a Regal $6.00 standardized shoe.

MILL TAX SUBSTITUTE WILL BE RECOMMENDED

Public Service Board Would Replace It and Franchise Tax by Levy on U. R. Gross Revenue.

The Board of Public Service tomorrow will make a report to the Board of Aldermen on the pending "compromise" in which it will be recommended that the measure be amended to provide for the abolition of the mill tax and franchise taxes, aggregating $480,000 a year, and the substitution of a tax of one-half of 1 per cent on the gross income of the United Railways.

President Kinsey has announced that he will submit a tentative report to the other members of the Board of Public Service tomorrow morning, and if this is acceptable to them it will be sent to the Aldermen. In addition to the elimination of the mill tax and franchise taxes, President Kinsey announced, the Board of Public Service will urge that the United Railways be granted a period of 10 years for the payment of accrued mill taxes amounting to $2,300,000, and that no interest be charged by the city. The payments would be made in annual installments of one-half of the whole sum, which the company had allowed the company for acceptance of the "compromise" will be specified as within 12 months, but if the war ends before the expiration of that limit, the company must file its acceptance and plan of reorganization within six months after peace is declared. Under the present bill, the company would be required to accumulate until the company formally accepts the ordinance, but no payments are to be required.

The present bill requires a tax of 8 per cent on the company's gross income, plus 1 per cent mill tax and franchise taxes, and gives the company nine months in which to accept the ordinance.

WEAKENED RUSSIA
WORRIES PORTION OF GERMAN PRESS

Breaking Up of Nation Into Independent States Considered Bad for Teutonic Prosperity.

JAPAN BEING DISCUSSED

Von Salzmann Says Berlin Policy
Has Cemented the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

AMSTERDAM, March 14 (By A. P.)—Some sections of the German press are becoming uneasy over developments in the Far East.

The Frankfurter Zeitung considers that the breaking up of Russia into a number of independent states is a bad policy for Germany and urges that the greatest tact and prudence be used in dealing with the border states, so that they will not in the future sigh for a reunion with Russia and become so many thorns in Germany's side.

The newspaper adds: "Clearly, the Entente will use the Japanese alliance to shove Germany out of Asiatic markets forever. Germany played their game by breaking up Russia. Germany now has no more hope than ever of being able to conduct a Far Eastern policy, except in conjunction with Great Britain and Russia. That is why a weak Russia will not contribute to Germany's ultimate welfare."

View of Von Salzmann:

Capt. von Salzmann, the military critic of the Vossische Zeitung.

"Germany, too, began to realize that the time might come when the United States and Japan would see that war is not always the most profitable way of settling differences. Germany's Russian policy has played the game brilliantly for Great Britain and the United States. In the same way Germany has increased Holland's debt of gratitude to Great Britain."

"It should have been Germany's game to earn Holland's gratitude by guaranteeing her the safe possession of her East Indian colonies, but instead of this she cemented the Anglo-Japanese alliance and delivered the Dutch colonies from Japanese pressure southward by opening the door to Japanese enterprise in Russia.

Sees German Disadvantage.

"Only the most limited intelligence can believe that the break-up of Russia will be to German advantage. The true results of Germany's Russian policy already are patent in the lessening of the differences between Japan and the United States and the cementing of the Anglo-Japanese alliance and the consequent security of the Anglo-Indian and Australian colonial possessions as well as the Dutch and French colonies in Southeast Asia.

"The consequences are that Germany again finds herself without friends in the world while Great Britain laughs in the background."

QUOTAS OF ST. LOUIS WARDS
IN DRAFT CALL OF MARCH 29City to Furnish 290 Men Who Will Be Entrained in Five Days—
County to Give 22.

St. Louis' quota of 290 men, of the special intermediate call for 93,000, will be entrained in the five days following March 29, Col. J. H. McCord announced yesterday. They will be drawn as follows:

First Ward, 9; Second, 8; Third, 7; Fourth, 15; Fifth, 11; Sixth, 12; Seventh, 7; Eighth, 8; Ninth, 9; Tenth, 9; Eleventh, 11; Twelfth, 11; Thirteenth, 16; Fourteenth, 10; Fifteenth, 9; Sixteenth, 9; Seventeenth, 14; Eighteenth, 7; Nineteenth, 10; Twentieth, 9; Twenty-first, 11; Twenty-second, 9; Twenty-third, 11; Twenty-fourth, 17; Twenty-fifth, 11; Twenty-sixth, 9; Twenty-seventh, 17; Twenty-eighth, 11. St. Louis County will give 32 men.

Chairman Spencer of the District Appeals Board said yesterday it was improbable that any St. Louis men with deferred classification, except those with special technical qualifications, would be called inside of three years. There remain 20,000 men in Class I here, he said, and the Government is only taking them at the rate of 6000 a year. If it is decided to register those who reach draft age each year, the possibility of deferred classes being called will be still more remote.

FOUND DEAD IN TERMINAL YARDS

Kentuckian Believed by Relative to Have Thrown Self Under Train.

John Dodds, 23 years old, of Sedalia, Ky., was found dead in the Terminal yards near Union Station at 8:40 p. m. yesterday, after being run over by a train.

William T. Wilford, his brother-in-law, who was taking him to a sanitarium at Macon, Mo., said he believed Dodds deliberately threw himself in front of the train, as he had a suicidal mania and had once tried to shoot himself. He had escaped from Wilford in the station waiting room.

BIG DEMAND FOR HELP IN GOVERNMENT OFFICES

Examination Here April 5 for Stenographers and Typewriters to Work in Washington.

The United States Government offices in Washington, D. C., urgently need thousands of stenographers, typewriters, clerk-bookkeepers and book-keepers-typewriters.

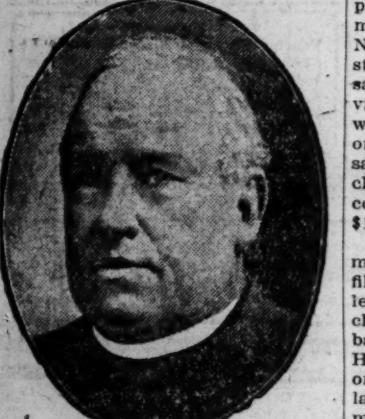

Examination are held every Tuesday at 9 a. m. in more than 400 cities to secure eligibles for these positions. A special examination will be held on April 5, commencing at 8 p. m., for stenographers and typewriters, for work in Washington, and on March 29, at 9 a. m., for positions outside of Washington, including the states of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, and the southern half of Illinois.

A special examination for any of the above-mentioned positions can be taken in any of the 400 cities of any day, when four or more agree to be examined at one time. This would mean than an examination could be held at some business college or high school, or any other place where an examination room could be secured. Full information, application blanks, sample questions, etc., may be obtained from any representative of the Civil Service Commission in any large postoffice or from the district secretary in the old custom house, Third and Olive streets.

Killed by Fall of Steel Bars.
Walter H. Young, 40 years old, of 4191 Von Versen avenue, was killed yesterday afternoon when struck by a bundle of steel bars being unloaded from a freight car at the United States Arsenal, Second and Arsenal streets, where he was at work. Young was passing the car and was not seen by the men handling the steel.

THE GETTING-WELL STAGE OF GRIP

Most Dangerous Period--
How to Gain Strength

The long pull in getting over the grip demands that all the organs of the body be kept in the best working form, not only to drive out the poison left by the grip germ, but that the patient shall regain strength as soon as possible to avoid further attacks resulting from the poisons in the system, paralyzing the greater part of the tissues of the body and the organs which they compose.

Forced nutrition is a means toward good health after the grip—as it is a means of preventing the entrance of the grip germ to the system. Father John's Medicine treats grip and builds up the body because it is all pure nourishment and free from opium, morphine, chlorform or other poisonous drugs. Father John's Medicine has had years' success for colds and throat troubles, coughs and sore throats, and as a tonic and body builder.—ADV.

DO SOMETHING FOR THAT COUGH

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will prove ideal treatment.

A neglected cough may lead to such dangerous bronchial or lung ailments, that proper attention with Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey cannot be begun too promptly.

You can absolutely depend on this remedy as it has proved effective in thousands of cases where a hacking cough, difficult breathing, inflammation or hoarseness were involved. Its balsam and healing ingredients soothe the throat, loosen the phlegm, the antiseptic properties check the cold germs and feverish or grippy feelings are promptly allayed.

Take Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey at once, not only for quick and gratifying relief for all distressing symptoms, but to prevent serious after-effects. Still sold at 25¢ by all druggists.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey for Coughs & Colds

Wrinkles Erased in Ten Minutes—A New Marvel

The beautifying sensation of the day is the "tarkroot treatment." No doctor in the world can give it, but we have ever before used with such enthusiasm, such instantaneous approval. Nothing will so surely and quickly iron out the age lines and wrinkles, the sagging and fading of the face, and make such a really youthful appearance. One need merely mix a teaspoonful of powdered tarkroot with a teaspoonful of plain water, smooth this soothing emulsion over the face, then go to the mirror and watch the wrinkles and sagging vanish like magic! One can scarcely believe her own eyes. Even very aged faces are wonderfully rejuvenated.

Tarkroot is so harmless, it could be eaten like candy. It will improve any complexion. It is to be washed off entirely in a half hour or so, and therefore is not to be confused with any cosmetic. It is to be used as a wash, and supply it in the original package, with full instructions.—ADV.

F. N. JUDSON, IN AN ADDRESS, DEFENDS STATE INCOME TAX

Attorney Engaged to Help Uphold Law's Validity Heard by West End Business Men.

MEETS MODERN NEEDS

Liberal Exemptions and Safeguards to Avoid Double Taxation Pointed Out.

Frederick N. Judson, St. Louis attorney, who has been retained as special counsel to aid Attorney-General McAllister and City Counselor Daves in upholding the constitutionality of the Missouri income tax law, made his first public plea in defense of the law in an address to the West End Business Men's Association in Odeon Recital Hall last night.

The Ludlow-Saylor Wire Co., as a test case, is questioning the validity of the law and has filed an injunction suit which is pending in the State Supreme Court.

Judson, in defense of the law, said that it comes in if properly administered, meets modern conditions more effectively than any other form of taxation. The subject of taxation, he said, is frequently complicated by the fact that both the Federal and State governments are under written constitutions, but with this fundamental difference that the State's sovereign power to tax does not come from the State Constitution, but from the Federal Constitution, which makes a distinct grant of power. State constitutions, where they mention taxation at all, merely concern themselves with restraints and regulations as to the method of levying and collecting the taxes.

Two Important Conditions.
"Two conditions at this time profoundly influence this subject," he said.

"They are, first, what may be termed the break-down; that is, the demonstrated ineffectiveness of the general property tax, viz., the attempt to tax all classes of real and personal property by one rule. "It is easy enough to tax real estate or anything which cannot be concealed, but it has been proved impossible to reach wealth known as intangible personality, which may pass from hand to hand, and can only be discovered by the voluntary disclosure of the taxpayer. The result in Missouri, as also in all other states of the United States, is that s to such property, the method of taxation is hopelessly inefficient.

"In the second place, this situation has developed while at the same time the needs of the Government for revenue have increased enormously. On need only look at the public buildings today, our school houses, at the developed functions of city government, to see how enormously these needs have developed. We are not content to live as our fathers lived. Their luxuries have become our necessities; and the one great fact in advancing civilization is the demand for new methods of taxation to meet these expanded public wants."

Income Tax Long Recognized.
Judson explained that wartime necessity could properly be urged in defense of the income tax law, as a patriotic measure designed to aid the Government in its conduct of the war. He pointed out that the income tax law has been on the statute books of England since the Napoleonic war, and that similar laws are now in operation in nearly all European countries and in 12 states in this country.

"An income tax, in theory at least, is a just tax, as it is based on the individual's ability to pay," Judson said. "A tax on income from personal services and the like was levied in the colonial times in this country and was termed a faculty tax, that is, because it was based on the individual's ability to pay. It also is just, because when based upon income it is based upon the increase of an individual's wealth. Thus, if A has a tract of unimproved property which yields no income, it is a burden to him, while B may have very little property and yet may enjoy a large income from his profession and other sources of income and be adding constantly to his own wealth. It seems just that in such case B is in a better position to contribute to the state's necessities than A."

Liberal Protection of Law.
Judson pointed out that in order to avoid double taxation, the Missouri law provides that receipts for taxes paid to the State on real or personal property will be accepted in payment of the income tax. He also called attention to the fact that the rate of taxation under the State law is much lower than under the Federal law, the exemptions are more liberal and there is no increasing graduation of the rate to the amount of the income as in the Federal law.

As to the objection that the law forces the disclosure of the details of a man's business and property returns, he said the same objection holds good as to the Federal law, and that an effective tax system necessarily involves disclosure. The State law, he said, provides that the returns are to be destroyed within six months after the tax is due and paid.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

No Age Limit for Government Clerks.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.Recently your paper contained a letter headed "From a Middle-Aged Man," and signed "O. C. M." in which the following sentence appeared: "Our own Government at present is seeking thousands of clerks to fill positions which pay very good salaries in various departments made possible by the present war; it, however, debars men aged 50 years of age from taking the civil service examination."The principal examinations given by the United States Civil Service Commission are for the positions of stenographer and typewriter and departmental clerk. For these positions and hundreds of others there is no maximum age limit. The Government urgently needs thousands of civilian employees and every effort is being made to secure competent persons through written tests and examinations based upon the physical ability and practical experience of applicants. CHARLES HENDRICKS, Secretary Ninth Civil Service District, St.

From a Belgian Soldier.

I must introduce myself as a Belgian soldier, having taken already a great part in the present war. I am very lonely and homesick and should dearly love to have a person who would care to write me some cheerful letters. This would be agreeable and very useful pastime, for I am learning the English language just now. In France and England have to care for their own men. I decided to call once more on the great nation which never failed to succor our people in distress. Hoping that my voice may be heard across the seas, I remain, your obliged,FERNAND CASTORE,

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I am sure some readers are kind enough to advice us what boards we are placing married men without children in class 2-B while others in the city are placing them in class 4-B? Is it the desire of our President to show preference or is it the desire of some of the judges of the local boards?
I am a man who has been married five years (placed in class 2-B), while I know of a number of men who have just been married, say one or two years, who have been placed in class 4-A. I am a citizen of the United States and think I should be granted the same privilege of my brother citizens, and probably there are a number of other men who have been placed in the same class as myself.

Fund for a Missouri Building.

Having read in the Post-Dispatch of an effort to raise $25,000 for a Missouri state building for our soldier boys at Camp Funston, it struck me how easy it would be to raise the money from a class of people who would not feel it and they would only be doing their duty to the Government by furnishing it. Here is my plan.When I received my income tax blank, to make report, I found that all city and state employees were exempt from U. S. income taxes. The reason I could not figure out was not being a lawyer. Now let city and state employees figure out the amount of income taxes we should pay to the Federal Government and subscribe that amount to the fund for the state building for the Missouri boys at Camp Funston.
Let the Governor and the Mayors of Kansas City and St. Louis act as committee to see that the funds are collected and contract let for this building, and the city and state employees will then be 100 per cent patriotic; none will be hurt and the fair name of Missouri will be saved.

The German sword, with William II's great ally, has thus self-determined to its own birth of the area of European two-fifths of the population. Whether the breath of the Juncker is at the prospect? Com-

Blucher's exclamation over a treasure house of land and this is to loot! Is it any wonder among the masses of the people the fever of conquest has come now by diplomatic or military place and noble birth in the caste system, the sons and daughters could no longer make rich marriages with the sons and daughters of the rich business men and manufacturers. No more now proletarians of the Slavic Spartan King, after a victory of Spartans, exhibited to their soldiers with raiment and then the soft Persian captives. "This" he says "what you fight, and this is right." So the German Imperium is at war with Russia have been to split, revolutionize and divide it and put their representatives in control, what will they not be able to accomplish when peace shall bring them full liberty to circulate freely in that rich but ignorant country.

It do not blame the Von Lachnows because they fight tooth and nail for the retention of their old privileges—because they endeavor to help the common people in a servile almost as complete as that of the Dark Ages. The dawn of constitutional government will be their twilight, the twilight of the gods of militarism, of privilege and of caste.

Prussian autocracy made the war in its last desperate endeavor to bribe the people into continued submission.

The only excuse for the existence of the Prussian ruling class today, much out of place as chain armor or robber barons, is its supposed honesty and efficiency; but no class which has brought the world to the German people can be described as competent, no one governing class has ever plunged into disastrous war—a country that by peaceful penetration, by thrift and manufacture and financial and commercial ability was in process of acquiring much of the wealth of the world.

Three Aims of Autocracy.

The first aim of German autocracy is to keep its own political position at home.

2. To obtain as much of the territory of other nations, as great an influence in unconquered lands, as possible.

3. To make peace now, but only if that peace is a German peace, a peace which can be called and verified and proclaimed as a German victory.

More particularly, Germany now looks to the East. In the so-called Baltic provinces of Russia the lands to a great extent are owned by Russian subjects of German blood. The peasants are poor, servile, without education or property, an ideal field for the advance of autocracy. It is hoped to either annex these provinces boldly or to establish protectorates, which, sooner or later, at an opportune moment, will fall into German hands—just as Austria gained the consent of Europe to a protectorate over Bosnia and Herzegovina and then suddenly added them to the domains of the Hapsburgs.

THE German propagandists have been working on the people of that part of Russia known as the Ukraine. If the Ukraine can be made a separate protectorate or a semi-independent state, some day it will be easily absorbed. The autocracy has the same hope about Lithuania, at one time semi-independent. There, too, the propagandists have worked on Lithuania—all these provinces, of course, differing slightly from the races surrounding and all with a semi-independent history, as, for instance, Courland.

But all these races should think twice before they accept a momentary independence if that autonomy is to lead them under the Prussian yoke. Whether that yoke is easy to bear or not is best answered by the Danes, Alsatians, Poles and Lorraine who have been forcibly incorporated in the kingdom of Prussia.

But greatest prize of all is the commercial control of Russia, which the autocracy hopes to win for its merchant class. Time and again I was told in Germany that a separate peace with Russia was near and that the expansion of Russia by the enterprising German merchants in a short time would repay Germany for all the losses.

Would it not seem extraordinary if the language of business and commerce of the United States were French? But today in Russia and for years back the language of commercial business intercourse has been German. A great beginning, a great foundation it is for the eventual con-

CHAPTER XIX.

I CAN understand the feeling of the Von Lachnows, the imaginary typical Prussian family of the ruling class which I have pictured for you. If Germany should be democratized what place would be left for them?

The offices of the Government thrown open to all classes in fair elections, a academy like West Point and Annapolis. Deprived of the aroma of power given now by diplomatic or military place and noble birth in the caste system, the sons and daughters could no longer make rich marriages with the sons and daughters of the rich business men and manufacturers. No more now proletarians of the Slavic Spartan King, after a victory of Spartans, exhibited to their soldiers with raiment and then the soft Persian captives. "This" he says "what you fight, and this is right."

So the German Imperium is at war with Russia have been to split, revolutionize and divide it and put their representatives in control, what will they not be able to accomplish when peace shall bring them full liberty to circulate freely in that rich but ignorant country.

It do not blame the Von Lachnows because they fight tooth and nail for the retention of their old privileges—because they endeavor to help the common people in a servile almost as complete as that of the Dark Ages. The dawn of constitutional government will be their twilight, the twilight of the gods of militarism, of privilege and of caste.

For centuries this royal family by intrigue, by war, purchase and marriage has been adding to its dominions, including under personal rule territories who do not understand each other's language and who differ widely in customs, intellectual attainments and religion.

THE last acquisition of territory was the house of Hapsburg was in the year 1908, when the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Office boldly declared that Bosnia and Herzegovina, placed under the protection of Austria-Hungary by the Treaty of Berlin in 1878, had been annexed to the empire. The German Kaiser, standing by like a watching accomplice while the burglary was in progress, threatened a general European war if any nations protested.

Austria Once Dominant Over Prussia.

In the end all classes in Russia will demand a strong Government, and if no military dictator, no Russian Napoleon, has taken in his hands the reins of Government, then the German Kaiser will stand by ready to whisper to the torn people of Russia as Napoleon III did to the French, "My Empire is Peace!"

The Middle European Plan.

UT even if Germany evacuates France and restores the complete independence of Belgium, even if no territories are gained to the east, or protectorates or dependencies, it is the fate of the body of Russia to be a later prey of Germany. Germany will have won if from Bremen to Bagdad German influence or actual German rule is predominant in Middle Europe. That event settled the question of leadership in Central Europe and the dream of the Emperor Frederick, who died about the time of the discovery of America. It was he who wrote the famous anagram on the vowels A, E, I, O, U.

It is the fate of Austria to rule the north and lower Austria, so called, there are about 12,000,000 German Austrians. This territory is comparatively small and in it lies the city of Vienna. To the north and northeast lie Bohemia and Moravia, the country of the Techech or Czechs of Slavic blood. These people together number about 6,000,000. Prague is the capital of Bohemia, while in Moravia there is no great city. For centuries these people have been oppressed by the Austrians, and in the Hussite rebellion the lands of Bohemia and Moravia were parcelled out to the Austrian nobles as well as to the warlike adventurers who had joined the Austrian armies.

With extraordinary obstinacy and patriotism these peoples cling to their old language and customs. They have suffered much during this war, and are told of the shooting of all the officers of Czech regiments and the execution of every tenth man among the privates.

Suggestions As to Use of Substitutes

HERE are some suggestions about the use of substitutes in cooking. They are made by Miss Mary Rausch of the Department of Home Economics, University of Washington.

One cup of corn syrup is equivalent to 1 cup of sugar and 1/4 cup liquid. Corn syrup does not sweeten as much as molasses or honey. If you use vegetable oils the quantity may be reduced one-half. Use 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 times as much oil to 1 cup of flour as is sufficient. Do not use fried foods, such as croquettes. Bake croquettes or make a meat loaf instead. Substitute either honey or maple syrup for sugar in a boiled frosting; do not use any frosting unless you can make it without sugar.

Macaroni, spaghetti and noodles are made of wheat; do not serve bread at the same meal. Use cornstarch or rice flour for thickening sauces, gravies and puddings, but only use one-half as much as of flour.

For bread use any of your own recipes, but omit sugar and fat and use at least one-fourth wheat substitute; use water, milk and water, whey, potato water, or rice water for the liquid.

War Saving in the Kitchen.

TO meet a critical shortage of talow in Great Britain, a committee was formed to collect kitchen waste, drippings, bones, butchers fat and grease, and so successful has been its work that the value of the by-products now exceeds $400,000 a month. Enough soap is being provided to supply the British army, navy, charitable and penal institutions, besides a surplus for the public.

Kitchen waste produces fat, which is necessary in the manufacture of soap, candles and fertilizers, to say nothing of glycerin for high explosives. The annual production of glycerin from this source is now sufficient to propel 17,000,000 shells.

Having Trained in a Circus, Willard Probably Expects to Box Rings Around Fulton

WILLARD HIMSELF
PROMOTING FIGHT
WITH FRED FULTON

Title Match, in the Making
Today, Will Be Financed
by Champion, Reliable Informant Tells Post-Di-patch.

SCENE OF PROPOSED
CONTEST A MYSTERY

If Championship Negotiations at Kansas City Fall
Through, Fulton Will Meet
Dempsey on Decoration
Day.

Arrangements will be completed today for one, possibly two of the most important heavyweight boxing contests since Jess Willard tired out that fat and ancient colored party,
Jack Johnson, at Havana, April 5.

Both matches involve Fred Fulton,
the erratic but hard-hitting Minnesotan, who promises to give such a splendid exhibition of rawhing power in knocking out Tom Cawley here.

Fulton today will close a match either with Champion Willard or with Jack Dempsey. Conditions may possibly permit of both contests, although this is improbable.

Fulton and Manager Mike Collins departed for Kansas City last night, where they will confer with J. C. Miller, representing Willard, concerning details of a championship contest. It is considered probable that the essential of this match will be agreed to.
Willard, it is said, already has signed for the affair.

Before leaving St. Louis yesterday, however, Fulton's manager, as told in late editions of the Post-Dispatch, signed an agreement to fight Jack Dempsey at the Velodrome, Newark, N. J., May 30, provided no contest with Willard was arranged.

Dempsey Is Willing.

Jack Bulger, manager of Tom Cowley, representing Eastern promoters, obtained the signature of Collins and Fulton, who are guaranteed 40 per cent of the receipts. Bulger left last night for Chicago, where he expects to close with Dempsey without difficulty. The Californian has been clamoring for a match with Fulton for weeks.

If the Willard match is closed, it is expected that the Dempsey affair will be deferred until after the title match, when its value to both promoters and men will be greatly enhanced.

That the title contest will be made possible, today, is the prevailing belief. Fulton, before leaving, stated that he was willing to oppose Willard on almost any terms.

He declared he was willing to fight
on a one-fourth basis, if that were necessary, although so poor an opponent as the American as Frank Moran
was given half the amount Willard
received, when they met.

Battleground a Mystery.

One of the mysteries concerning this fight is its battle ground. It is known that New Orleans has made the best money offer, $120,000, but it is believed that other plans are in process.

It is said that Willard himself is behaving the promotion of this fight and will make Fulton a cash offer to meet him, reserving for himself the profits of the venture from the battleground. This information comes from a dependable source. The consummation of the plan is dependent solely on finding a suitable location for holding the battle.

Fulton has always fought for a percentage and not a guarantee, so that Collins may object to any guarantee.

Arrangements for a quick return match between Cawley and Fulton have fallen through owing to the fact that the Coliseum is not available for boxing matches until late in May.

Tommy Sullivan, manager of the Fulton-Cawley Club, is trying to arrange for the Coliseum, room 101,
at Grand and Morgan, as the scene of future contests brought off by him.

The finances of the Cawley-Fulton affair were given out yesterday. According to his bill of hand, Fulton received $1144. Cawley $1000. Total receipts were slightly over $2500, Sullivan making $488 out of the promotion end of it.

The annual tournament of the donated to the Red Cross, will be held at the Hillcrest Country Club, in Kansas City, June 17 to 22. This information was obtained by E. J. Snowden, president of the Forest Park Golf Club, and letter from James E. Nu-

The team representing the Forest

Unpopular Songs.

A POOR but honest pugilist
Was looking for a scrap;
He longed to make some changes in
A certain person's map.
And so he was sporting scruples
With scathing diatribes.

"I'll fight that guy for charity
Or any other thing;
I'll give a thousand iron men
To get him in the ring.
To wipe somebody off the earth
I only want a chance."

Then up spoke Private Burke and said:

"Why don't you go to France?"

They're coming in from Portland,

To Portland, Oregon;
So if you're looking for a fight
Jump in and lick the Hun!"

CHICAGO, March 14.—Sailors of Lee declared he was willing to fight

on a one-fourth basis, if that were
necessary, although so poor an opponent as the American as Frank Moran
was given half the amount Willard
received, when they met.

Battleground a Mystery.

The game is receiving a great deal of attention in France. Commander of the fleet has been informed there is a great deal of rivalry between the various units. We hope to have good ball teams at the naval bases. Most of the ships have ex-college players on board, so we ought to have some very good teams.

There is tremendous rivalry between the first and second naval squadrons in these waters. It is proposed that the pioneer squadron shall represent the American League in the contest this summer against the squadron that left the States at a later date.

In my mind there is no doubt that one summer in France probably will be the national game of this great nation.

LA FAYETTE, Ind., March 14.—Wisconsin clinched the Big Ten Basket Ball championship here last night by nosing out Purdue 24 to 13. Knapp, Wisconsin, scored three field goals in rapid succession near the close when Purdie was leading.

BRIDGET, don't you think you could get along with less company? I'm sure no other misses would stand it.

"Well, ma'am, that's right! That's why I'm stayin' wid ye."—Boston Transcript.

Why Waste Time?

"WHY do you consider women to be superior to men in intelligence?"

"A bald-headed man buys his restorer by the bottle, doesn't he?"

"Er—yes."

"Well, a woman doesn't waste time on a hair restorer; she buys hair!—London Passing Show."

True Instinct.

LITTLE LYDIA had been given a ring as a birthday present, but, much to her disappointment, no one of the guests at dinner noticed it. Finally, unable to withstand their obtuseness or indifference, she exclaimed:

"Oh, dear, I'm so warm in my new ring!"—Youth's Companion.

Shocking.

An elderly lady of very prim and severe aspect was seated next a young couple, who were discussing the merits of their motor cars. Finally, unable to withstand their obtuseness or indifference, she exclaimed:

"What color is your body?" asked the young man of the girl at his side, meaning, of course, the body of her motor.

"Oh, mine is pink. What is yours?"

"Mine," replied the man, "is brown, with wide yellow stripes."

This was too much for the old lady. Rising from the table, she exclaimed:

"It means the 'other I,'" responded a pupil.

"Give me a sentence containing the phrase."

"He winked his alter ego."—Boston Transcript.

Bright Boston Pupil.

WHAT is the meaning of "alter ego?" asked the teacher of the beginners' class in Latin. "It means the 'other I,'" responded a pupil.

"When young people come to asking each other the color of their bodies at a dinner party, it is time I left the room."—Trib.

An Added Burden.

A SMALL boy who had been in the habit of leaving food on his plate was warned that Mr. Hoover would not approve of it.

He meditatively replied: "I've always had to mind daddy and mother and Aunt Mary and God, and now here comes along Mr. Hoover."

Life.

Perhaps There Was a Reason.

A N editor received this letter from a fresh youth: "Kindly tell me why a girl always closes her eyes when a fellow kisses her."

To which the editor replied: "If you will send us your photograph we may be able to tell you the reason."—Puck.
